- i) Misbehaving in any other manner in the examination hall, or

- j) Harassing or doing bodily harm to the staff employed by the ASRB for the conduct of examination, or
- k) Attempting to commit or abetting, as the case may be, the ASRB of all or any other acts specified in the foregoing clauses, may, in addition to rendering himself liable to criminal prosecution, be liable:-
 - I. To be disqualified by the ASRB from the examination for which he/she is a candidate; or
 - II. To be debarred either permanently or for a specified period:
 - (i) by the ASRB/ Council from any examination or selection held by them;
 - (ii) by the ASRB/ Council from any employment under them.

If he/she is an ICAR employee, a disciplinary action will also be taken against him/her as per the appropriate rules.

14. After the written examination, the candidates who obtain such minimum qualifying marks as may be fixed by the ASRB at their discretion shall be called for an interview for personality test.

Provided that candidates belonging to Scheduled Caste, Scheduled Tribe, Other Backward Class, EWS or PwBD may be called for a personality test by the ASRB by applying relaxed standards, if the board is of the opinion that sufficient number of candidates from these communities are not likely to be available for this test on the basis of the general standards in order to fill up the vacancies reserved for them.

15. After the Interview, the eligible and qualified candidates will be arranged by the ASRB in order of merit on the basis of the aggregate marks finally awarded to each candidate in the written examination as well as Interview. In that order as many candidates as are found by the ASRB to be qualified in the examination shall be recommended for appointment upto the number of unreserved vacancies decided to be filled on the basis of the final results of the candidates, subject to their being within the prescribed age limits.

16. The form and manner of communication of the result of the examination to individual candidates shall be decided by the Board at their discretion and the Board will not enter into any correspondence with them regarding result.

17. No person:

- (a) who has entered into or contracted a marriage with a person having a spouse living, or
- (b) who, having a spouse living, has entered into or contracted a marriage with any person, shall be eligible for appointment to service.

Provided that the Council may, if satisfied that such marriage is permissible under the personal law applicable to such persons and the other party to the marriage and there are other grounds for so doing, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

18. Resolution of Tie Cases:

Wherever two or more candidates have secured equal aggregate marks (marks in Single Composite Objective-cum-Descriptive type Examination + Structured Interview/Personality Test), the merit of the candidates shall be determined by applying the following Tie-Breaker Rules:

- (a) Date of birth, with older candidate being placed higher.
- (b) Marks in Written Examination i.e. Single Composite Objective-cum-Descriptive Type Examination.
- (c) Alphabetical order in which the names of the candidate appear.

19. Power to relax the provisions of the rules:-

If the President of the Council is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient to do, he may be by order in writing, relax any of the provisions of these rules, with respect to any class or category of persons.

20. A candidate must be in possession of good mental and physical health and free from any other physical defects (save as prescribed for PwBD candidates) likely to interfere with the efficient discharge of his duties as an officer of the service. A candidate who after such medical examination, as may be prescribed by the Competent Authority is found not to satisfy these requirements will not be appointed. Only such candidates as are likely to be considered for appointment will be medically examined.

21. Success at the examination confers no right to appointment, unless the Council is satisfied, after such enquiry as may be considered necessary, that the candidate having regard to his/her character and antecedents is suitable in all respects for appointment to the post.

22. Brief particulars relating to the services / posts to which recruitment is being made through examination are given in Appendix-II.

Persons recruited as Assistant Director (Official Language) on Direct Recruitment basis will be on probation for a period of 2 years which may be extended at the discretion of the Competent Authority.

On conclusion of the period of probation, the ICAR may confirm the probationer in his/her appointment, if his/her work or conduct has, in the opinion of ICAR, been found satisfactory. In case his/her work and conduct, in the opinion of ICAR found unsatisfactory, he/she may either be discharged from the services or her/his period of probation may be extended for such further period as ICAR may deem necessary.
